Churches Together in Broadstone ~ praying together this week

August's prayers have been prepared by St John the Baptist Church

As we begin to turn towards the holiday season for many, we pray for all those seeking some time away from their everyday lives. We pray for all who will be meeting up with family at this time, for their time together and for the renewal and reconnection that this will provide. We ask that you keep people safe as they travel. Amen.

Holiday at Home Day at St John's

Wednesday 26 August

St John's is teaming up with St Nicolas' Church to offer a Holiday at Home Day with fish & chips for £5, aimed at anyone who won't get a holiday this year.

Rev Helen Bailey at St. John's advises early booking for anyone interested.

It will be a fun day and is dementia friendly, so if people have spouses etc. they are caring for, who they want to bring, they will be very welcome. Please see St John's poster on our Coffee Lounge noticeboard for more information.

To register, please take one of the flyers/forms attached to the poster, complete it and return it with your payment to St John's Parish Office. (Please see Nikki in our office if all the forms/flyers have gone.)
