Churches Together in Broadstone prayer for 21 December

Advent is a time of expectancy. We prepare for the birth of hope in the coming of the Christ-child. We pray that our churches in Broadstone may be beacons of hope by our words, our actions, our practical support and by the quality of our love. And by our sharing of God's love, may we be the transformation we long to see.

Family & pastoral news

We send our congratulations and best wishes to Olive Mitchell as she celebrates her 90th birthday on 31st December.

We hold in our prayers those known to us who are unwell or awaiting results of clinical tests and those who are housebound, lonely, sad or grieving. We pray that they will know God's loving presence and comfort this Christmas time.

Churches Together in Broadstone prayer for 28 December

(December prayers prepared by St John's Church)

We pray for all our care homes in Broadstone. For residents and carers, and the friendships and family life shared in those communities. We give thanks for those who organize activities and groups to make life pleasurable for the residents, and give thanks for the links with our churches through services and connection.

Sunday Door Steward rota

There is a new blank rota on the noticeboard in the Coffee Lounge, covering January to March 2026, ready and waiting for volunteers to fill in. Please consider whether you would be willing to sign up maybe once a month, or every couple of months, to help cover this Sunday morning role. (We need two people per week.) The duties are not too onerous. Door Stewards need to arrive a little earlier than most – so at about 9.50am - in order to be ready to welcome people as they arrive for worship and to hand out notice-sheets, communion booklets, orders of service etc. As you will see under the morning worship details above, we're still in need of two helpers on Sunday 28 December too. Thank you.

Next Notices

If you have any items of interest for our Notices on Sunday 4 January 2026, please send them to Judith Hewins by 7pm on Tuesday 30 December, preferably by email to notices@broadstonemethodist.org.uk
