August 2020

Dear Friends,

Praise the Lord!

We can start to open up our church again!

The sanctuary will be open for private prayer on Saturday mornings from 10.00am to 12.00 midday, beginning on this Saturday August 22nd.

It won't be our church as it used to be; there will be a well-signed one-way system into the sanctuary and the way out will be through the emergency exit. We'll have to fill in 'track and trace' forms, we'll have to wear our masks, and we are strongly discouraged from talking to each other while we're inside and outside the building, and we certainly can't have a coffee together. But at least we can, at long last, come back into our welcoming church building.

Very many thanks to Keith and all those who have worked hard to make this happen.

The plan is that we open the church for prayer on each of the next few Saturday mornings, and that by the end of September, it should be possible, if there is no change to the coronavirus situation, for us to have some form of worship service.

We look forward to seeing (but not talking to) you at one of these prayer times.

God bless you all

Joan and David
