Church news

Those attending our service in church last Sunday shared in a joyful, uplifting act of worship led by our friend, Clive Allen. His sermon, reflecting on Paul's letter to the church in Philippi - written while Paul himself was under "lockdown" in prison - offered us much encouragement and a reminder that throughout these current difficulties, "the God who gives us peace will be with you" (Philippians Ch. 4, v.9). For our hymns, we had the words on the screen and could hum along to Leila's piano accompaniment. We also enjoyed a beautiful rendition of two hymns recorded during lockdown by Clive's very musically-gifted daughter, Catherine.

If you would like to join us next Sunday morning, please book your place by phoning or emailing Annette. For those not able or ready to return yet, we hope that the Circuit's Zoom worship or the weekly audio recordings and printed sheets are enabling you to feel part of our collective worship.

Link to Hope – 2020 Shoebox Appeal

We hope you will be able to support this Christmas appeal again this year.

If you are filling a shoebox, please contact Anne Le Poidevin to arrange a time to drop it off at her home. Please remember to attach £3 towards delivery costs. The last date for boxes to be dropped off is Sunday 25 October. The charity's website has a video on how to pack a shoebox:

Or you can make a monetary donation directly to Link to Hope via the website above.

Another alternative is to bulk-buy items from their Amazon "Wish List" - which they will pack into shoeboxes at their Worthing base. See the link below, also available via the Link to Hope website above.
