Churches Together in Broadstone ~ praying together this week

(November prayer themes have been written by Broadstone Methodists)

This week let us focus on 'home', those with no home, those homes with only one parent, for homes under strain, for those whose home life is stained by disappointment and despair. Then, let us give thanks for our homes and our place in God's family, the church.

Covid measures: a reminder

Please remember to wrap up warmly when coming to church, especially as the weather becomes colder. We still need to keep doors and windows open for ventilation, so please feel free to bring a rug or blanket to use if necessary. We also still need to wear our masks and use the hand sanitiser etc. All this may even help to keep all the other winter bugs in check!

Café Church on Sunday, 21 November at 4.30pm

Tea and cakes in the coffee lounge will be followed by a presentation on 'Persecution of Christians in India' by Alastair McGregor, a representative from Open Doors. Open Doors is a Christian charity which serves persecuted Christians around the world by providing vital support, resources and training. It is estimated that there are over 340 million Christians across the world who suffer persecution and discrimination for their faith.

Advent ring workshop, Thursday 25 November at 2pm

There are 5 spaces left for the afternoon workshop to make an Advent ring, which is at 2pm on Thursday 25 November in the coffee lounge. All materials will be provided, although you might wish to bring some garden greenery and any small Christmas decorations, pine cones, ribbons etc. Cost: £5 to include refreshments. Contact Ann Beasley or Joan Jackson

Church Anniversary Service, 28 November at 10.30am

Our morning worship will be led by Deacon Gill Judge. We hope you can join us.

Broadstone Christmas Music & Market, Saturday 4 December

We hope to be able to serve refreshments throughout the event, up until 3pm – e.g. coffee and mince pies and possibly soup at lunchtime. We already have 2 people on the coffee rota for the morning, but if you are willing to help at lunchtime or in the afternoon, or if you can help for an hour or two with our Messy Church activities (outside if the weather permits), please speak to Joan Jackson.

If you find yourself munching on Pringles crisps over the next few weeks, or finishing off your tub of gravy granules, please save the plastic lids and bring them to church for Joan Jackson/Anne Le Poidevin/ Marilyn Greenaway. The lids will be useful for our Messy Church crafts.
