Churches Together in Broadstone ~ praying together this week (August prayer intentions prepared by St John's)

God of the unexpected hour: keep our hearts awake to the needs of those around us this week; call our denominations afresh to lay aside our own anxieties and serve others; and guide us as we carry the treasures of your grace out into the world. Amen.

What's on in August

Although painting and other maintenance is being carried out this month, the Coffee Lounge will be open as normal on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays from 10am – 12 noon. (Closed on Bank Holiday Monday 29 August.)

Knit and Natter is taking a break this month and will reconvene on Monday 5 September.

Broadstone Musical Market takes place on Saturday 20 August, 10am - 3pm.

Local young musicians and singers will be performing on our garden at the front and refreshments will be on sale in the Coffee Lounge throughout the day. We will also be offering Messy Church activities outside and will be glad of some extra helpers for this. So please speak to Joan Jackson if you can offer even just an hour.

Pivot call for articles

The next issue of the Pivot magazine will be published in September. Articles need to be submitted by Weds 24 August please, to either Annette Brooke or David Spracklen. David and Annette are happy to be contacted, should you wish to discuss your ideas with them first.
